

FINITE VERB

Let's define finite verb, It can be in the present tense or the past tense and agrees with a subject. If a verb is the only verb in a phrase or the main component of the main clause, finite verbs are easy to spot. They may even be verbs of imperative form!

Read More

1 . Which of the following is a finite verb?

- a. Am
- b. Writing
- c. To find
- d. To run

Answer: A

2. Which sentence contains a finite verb?

- a. It took confidence to get up after falling down.
- b. My sister spoke French on holiday.
- c. Leave immediately when you are asked to do so
- d. Leaving home can be very traumatic.

Answer: B

3. Which of the following employs a past-tense finite verb?

- a. He completed studying for his exams.
- b. He is never gonna fail in any subject.
- c. He studies a lot.
- d. He thinks he'll pass all the exams.

Answer: A

4. Which of the following is NOT a finite verb?

- a. Played
- b. Plays
- c. Playing
- d. Play

Answer: C

5. What kind of non-finite verb is highlighted in the following sentence?

Succeeding is not sufficient at times.

- a. Infinitives
- b. Gerunds
- c. Participles
- d. None of above

Answer: B

6. Choose the correct finite verb sentence from the following.

- a. Karthik is singing with her sister.
- b. Choosing the dress.
- c. Bottles have fallen on the road.
- d. To swim in the pool.

Answer: A

7. Choose the sentence with the finite participle from the following.

- a. My car smashed into another car.
- b. Smashed with another car.
- c. To smash with.
- d. Smashing with.

Answer: B

8. Pick out the Finite Verb in the given sentence.

They stood up to salute the higher officer.

- a. Officer
- b. They
- c. Stood
- d. To Salute

Answer: C

9. Choose the non-finite verbs in the given sentence.

Climbing a mountain to reach the height is a thrilling experience.

- a. Climbing
- b. To reach
- c. Thrilling
- d. All the above

Answer: D

10. What kind of a verb is the underlined word in the given sentence?

The weakened boy cannot play well.

- a. Finite verb
- b. Non-finite verb, a gerund
- c. Non-finite verb, a participle
- d. Non-finite verb, an infinitive

Answer: C