

ADJECTIVE CLAUSE

An adjective clause is a group of words used to define a noun or a pronoun. The group of words together will help describe the noun and pronoun, making it clearer to understand. A sentence with an adjective clause will have a subject and a verb. On their own Adjective clause has no meaning.

Read more

Q1: Q1: We are expecting days ___ will melt the ice on the road. Fill in

- A: That
  - B: Which
  - C: That has
  - D: Had
-

Q2: Q2: True or false? An adjective clause is a multi-word adjective that includes a subject and a verb..

- A: True
  - B: false
-

Q3: Q3: Select the example with an adjective clause.:

- A: Spiders, which are a type of insect, are often venomous.
  - B: She is a girl that stands near a tree every day.
  - C: She likes the piano.
  - D: She has ice cream, which is sweet and bitter.
-

Q4: Q4: Are commas important in a non-essential clause?

- A: True
  - B: False
-

Q5: Q5: How do you identify the Essential clause??

- A: Clause depicts crucial information
  - B: It is a proverb
  - C: Anything
  - D: None
-

Q6: Q6: How to look for the subject in the restrictive clause?.

- A: Noun
  - B: Pronoun
  - C: All of the above
  - D: None
-

Q7: Q7: How to identify the wrong non-restrictive clause?.

- A: with commas
  - B: without comma
-

Q8: Q8: How do you additionally add info to the sentence?

- A: Essential clause
  - B: Non-essential clause
-

Q9: Q9: 'Is she is dancing near the stage.' an adjective clause?

- A: Yes
  - B: No
-

Q10: Q10: 'You are sweet' is an adjective?

- A: Yes
  - B: No
-

Answers

---

Q1: B - Which

Q2: A - True

Q3: A - Spiders, which are a type of insect, are often venomous.

Q4: A - True

Q5: A - Clause depicts crucial information

Q6: C - All of the above

Q7: B - without comma

Q8: B - Non-essential clause

Q9: B - No

Q10: B - No