

ADVERB

Each concept in grammar requires attention and practice. While learning English, many need constant clarification about what is an adverb and how to use them in communication. You might even be googling “define adverb” frequently. To empower your learning of adverbs, EduLyte’s English language trainers have prepared an easy-to-understand guide about adverbs.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following is an adverb of time?

- A: Quickly
  - B: Here
  - C: Yesterday
  - D: Quite
-

Q2: Choose the adverb of manner.

- A: Today
  - B: Fast
  - C: Often
  - D: Nearby
-

Q3: Which of the following is a comparative adverb?

- A: Quickly
  - B: Happily
  - C: More quickly
  - D: Silently
-

Q4: Fill in the blank with the correct adverb: 'He sings _____ than his brother.'

- A: Good
  - B: Better
  - C: Best
  - D: Well
-

Q5: Which sentence has the correct use of both an adjective and an adverb?

- A: She sings beautiful in the choir.
  - B: The boy ran quick to catch the ball.
  - C: He plays basketball good on the court.
  - D: She speaks softly to her grandmother.
-

Q6: Fill in the blank with the correct adverb: 'The dog barked

_____.'

- A: Loud
  - B: Louder
  - C: Loudest
  - D: Loudly
-

Q7: Pick the adverb of frequency.

- A: Quietly
  - B: Quickly
  - C: Sometimes
  - D: Carefully
-

Q8: Which of the following is an adverb of place?

- A: Often
  - B: Fast
  - C: Here
  - D: Loudly
-

Q9: Fill in the blank with the correct adverb: 'She sings _____ than her sister.'

- A: Good
  - B: Better
  - C: Best
  - D: Well
-

Q10: What is the definition of an adverb?

- A: A type of verb
  - B: A type of noun
  - C: A type of adjective
  - D: A word that modifies a verb, adjective, or another adverb
-

Answers

---

Q1: C - Yesterday

Q2: B - Fast

Q3: C - More quickly

Q4: B - Better

Q5: D - She speaks softly to her grandmother.

Q6: D - Loudly

Q7: C - Sometimes

Q8: C - Here

Q9: B - Better

Q10: D - A word that modifies a verb, adjective, or another adverb