

CLAUSE

If you're looking to improve your writing skills, mastering English grammar is a must. By now, you must likely be familiar with the basic elements of English sentences: subjects, verbs, and objects. When discussing more intricate writing ideas like clauses, the topic "What is a clause in a sentence?" sometimes comes up.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following is an example of a dependent clause?

- A: I went to the store.
 - B: Because I was late.
 - C: The car was parked outside.
 - D: She enjoys reading books.
-

Q2: Which of the following is an example of an independent clause?

- A: Since the weather was bad,
 - B: Although he tried his best,
 - C: If you don't eat your vegetables,
 - D: I will go to the store.
-

Q3: Which of the following is an example of an adjective clause?

- A: Although she was tired, she went to the gym, which is unusual for her.
 - B: He left the office earlier than usual.
 - C: If I had the time, I would visit my grandparents more often.
 - D: What he said at the meeting was completely irrelevant.
-

Q4: Which of the following is an example of a time adverb clause?

- A: Although he is allergic to peanuts, he loves peanut butter.
 - B: When the sun sets, the sky turns orange and pink.
 - C: They may stay for whatever length of time they like.
 - D: The boy who won the race was very excited.
-

Q5: Which of the following is an example of a complement noun clause?

- A: What you said makes no sense.
 - B: His goal is to find out why it happened.
 - C: She believes that she can do it.
 - D: If you leave early, we can go to the movies.
-

Q6: Which of the following is an example of a contrast adverb clause?

- A: Because he was sick, he missed the concert.
B: Although she was offered a higher-paying job, she decided to stay at her current company.
C: When the principal entered the room, everyone stood up.
D: After he completed his homework, he went to play.
-

Q7: Which of the following is an example of an object noun clause?

- A: He questioned my willingness to see a musical.
B: The fact that she arrived late was no surprise.
C: Although it was snowing, he decided to play badminton.
D: I don't know what he meant by that feedback.
-

Q8: Which of the following is an example of a cause-and-effect adverb clause?

- A: She will go to the store before the party starts.
B: I will not go to the beach because it is too cold.
C: Since you are here, would you like to come in for a cup of coffee?
D: The pilot flew his plane as fast as possible.
-

Q9: Which of the following is an example of a relative adverb clause?

- A: She will go to the store before the party starts.
B: I will not go to the beach because it is too cold.
C: Since you are here, would you like to come in for a cup of coffee?
D: She drove her scooter as fast as possible.
-

Q10: Which of the following is an example of a conditional adverb clause?

- A: When the play ended, we left the theatre.
B: Unless she hurries, we will be late for the party.
C: The meal, which was prepared by the chef, was delicious.
D: The train arrived at the station and passengers disembarked.
-

Answers

Q1: B - Because I was late.

Q2: D - I will go to the store.

Q3: A - Although she was tired, she went to the gym, which is unusual for her.

Q4: B - When the sun sets, the sky turns orange and pink.

Q5: A - What you said makes no sense.

Q6: B - Although she was offered a higher-paying job, she decided to stay at her current company.

Q7: D - I don't know what he meant by that feedback.

Q8: B - I will not go to the beach because it is too cold.

Q9: C - Since you are here, would you like to come in for a cup of coffee?

Q10: B - Unless she hurries, we will be late for the party.