

LEXICAL VERB

The primary verbs (or action words) in a sentence are known as a lexical verb. They may depict an action taken by the person or convey an emotion.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following is a lexical verb?

- A: I had been working
 - B: She has been playing
 - C: He had been living
 - D: She sings a song
-

Q2: Which of the following is an example of a lexical verb in the past tense?

- A: Arjun ran fast
 - B: Shiva is being rude
 - C: He has been telling you
 - D: My mom dances well
-

Q3: Which of the following is an example of a lexical verb expressing ability?

- A: She is drinking
 - B: She was slowly getting up from the bed.
 - C: He drives well.
 - D: She eats
-

Q4: Which statement does not include lexical verbs?

- A: She goes to the apartment
 - B: I have been thinking about you
 - C: He knows every paper
 - D: She reads the newspaper
-

Q5: Which statement includes lexical verbs?

- A: She eats
 - B: He was going
 - C: It has to be done
 - D: You are playing
-

Q6: Which statement includes lexical verbs?

- A: They have been staying here
 - B: They know who calls them
 - C: I am not coming with you
-

Q7: Which statement includes lexical verbs?

- A: You have been working here
 - B: She has been drinking since she was 22
 - C: I think a lot
 - D: He had been scolded
-

Q8: Which statement includes lexical verbs?

- A: She thinks about her family
 - B: He will be completing his degree
 - C: I shall enter the room
 - D: She has been rude
-

Q9: Which statement includes lexical verbs?

- A: You are going to the match
 - B: Nandhu drinks coffee
 - C: She was crying
 - D: He has laughed a lot
-

Q10: Which statement includes lexical verbs?

- A: They are playing
 - B: Indhu smiles at Aravi
 - C: You had been there with me
-

Answers

Q1: D - She sings a song

Q2: A - Arjun ran fast

Q3: C - He drives well.

Q4: B - I have been thinking about you

Q5: A - She eats

Q6: B - They know who calls them

Q7: C - I think a lot

Q8: A - She thinks about her family

Q9: B - Nandhu drinks coffee

Q10: B - Indhu smiles at Aravi