

GRADABLE ADJECTIVE

Gradable adjectives are a type of descriptive words that allow for comparison or degrees of intensity. These adjectives can be modified by words like “very”, “quite”, or “extremely” to indicate a higher or lower level of the quality being described.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following is an example of a gradable adjective with a superlative form?

- A: Fast
 - B: Tall
 - C: Happy
 - D: Beautiful
-

Q2: Which of the following is an example of a non-gradable adjective?

- A: Tallest
 - B: Fastest
 - C: Perfect
 - D: Smarter
-

Q3: Which of the following is an example of an irregular gradable adjective?

- A: Big
 - B: Small
 - C: Good
 - D: Fast
-

Q4: Which of the following is an example of a gradable adjective?

- A: Unique
 - B: Perfect
 - C: Tall
 - D: Round
-

Q5: Which adverb can be used to intensify a gradable adjective?

- A: Only
 - B: Very
 - C: Always
 - D: Never
-

Q6: Which of the following is an example of a non-gradable adjective?

- A: Happy
 - B: Beautiful
 - C: Dead
 - D: Intelligent
-

Q7: Which adjective does not have comparative and superlative forms?

- A: Big
 - B: Clever
 - C: Old
 - D: Cold
-

Q8: Which of the following is an irregular gradable adjective?

- A: Fast
 - B: Bright
 - C: Delicious
 - D: Strong
-

Q9: Which intensifier can be used to show a high degree of a quality?

- A: Sometimes
 - B: Fairly
 - C: Extremely
 - D: Occasionally
-

Q10: Which of the following adjectives is not gradable?

- A: Smart
 - B: Unique
 - C: Fast
 - D: Beautiful
-

Answers

Q1: B - Tall

Q2: C - Perfect

Q3: A - Big

Q4: C - Tall

Q5: B - Very

Q6: C - Dead

Q7: A - Big

Q8: A - Fast

Q9: C - Extremely

Q10: B - Unique