

HYPHEN

What is a hyphen? Its purpose is to create compound words and clarify the relationship between words. Hyphens are crucial in writing as they aid in understanding complex terms, such as “self-confidence,” and prevent ambiguity. They are used in compound adjectives before a noun, like “well-known author.” Hyphens also assist in word division at the end of lines to maintain readability. Proper usage of hyphens ensures clear communication and enhances the overall quality of writing by providing structure and coherence.

Read more

Q1: Which option correctly shows the hyphenation of the compound adjective?

- A: Fresh - baked cookies
 - B: Fresh baked - cookies
 - C: Fresh-baked cookies
 - D: Fresh baked cookies
-

Q2: Which sentence shows the right use of a hyphen?

- A: She is a wellknown actress.
 - B: She is a well-known actress.
 - C: She is a well known-actress.
 - D: She is a wellknown-actress.
-

Q3: Which option demonstrates the correct hyphenation of the compound word?

- A: Self confidence
 - B: Self-confidence
 - C: Selfconfidence
 - D: Self - confidence
-

Q4: Choose the correctly hyphenated phrase:

- A: The state-ofthe-art technology
 - B: The state-of-the-art technology
 - C: The state of-the-art technology
 - D: The state of the art technology
-

Q5: Which sentence uses hyphens correctly?

- A: The red hot chili peppers performed.
 - B: The red-hot chili peppers performed.
 - C: The red hot-chili peppers performed.
 - D: The red hot chili-peppers performed.
-

Q6: Which word is hyphenated correctly?

- A: Non refundable
 - B: Non-refundable
 - C: Nonrefundable
 - D: Non - refundable
-

Q7: Which phrase is hyphenated correctly?

- A: A one way street
 - B: A one-way street
 - C: A oneway street
 - D: A one - way street
-

Q8: Which option correctly shows the hyphenation of the compound word?

- A: Long - lasting
 - B: Longlasting
 - C: Longlasting
 - D: Long lasting
-

Q9: Which sentence uses hyphens correctly?

- A: The little known actor received an award.
 - B: The little-known actor received an award.
 - C: The little known-actor received an award.
 - D: The little known actor-received an award.
-

Q10: Which phrase is hyphenated correctly?

- A: A high - quality product
 - B: A high-quality product
 - C: A high quality-product
 - D: A high quality product
-

Answers

Q1: C - Fresh-baked cookies

Q2: B - She is a well-known actress.

Q3: B - Self-confidence

Q4: B - The state-of-the-art technology

Q5: B - The red-hot chili peppers performed.

Q6: B - Non-refundable

Q7: B - A one-way street

Q8: A - Long - lasting

Q9: B - The little-known actor received an award.

Q10: B - A high-quality product