

PAST PERFECT TENSE

Tenses rule your sentences. And any English language learner can only get comfortable with the language if they understand the tenses. Among them, the past perfect tense holds significant learning. EduLyte knows that you might feel confused regarding its use, so we provide this resource and a free worksheet to empower a quick understanding of the tense.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following sentences uses the past perfect tense correctly?

- A: She had wrote a letter before she went to bed.
  - B: He had eat lunch before he left for work.
  - C: They had already finished their homework when the teacher arrived.
  - D: I had saw that movie last night.
-

Q2: In which of the following situations would you use the past perfect tense?

- A: Describing an action happening in the present.
  - B: Expressing a habitual action in the Past.
  - C: Indicating an action completed before another action in the Past.
  - D: Referring to future events.
-

Q3: Which of the following sentences is written in past perfect tense?

- A: She will finish her work before the deadline.
  - B: He is studying for his exam tomorrow.
  - C: They had already eaten dinner when I arrived.
  - D: I did visited that museum before.
-

Q4: Choose the sentence that correctly uses the past perfect form for the given sentence: She _____ (finish) her work before she went home.

- A: had finished
  - B: finished
  - C: has finished
  - D: finishes
-

Q5: Choose the sentence that correctly uses the past perfect form for the given sentence: They _____ (arrive) at the airport before the flight took off.

- A: had arrived
  - B: arrived
  - C: have arrived
  - D: arrives
-

Q6: How do you form the past perfect tense?

- A: Adding 'had' before the base form of the verb.
  - B: Adding 'was' or 'were' before the base form of the verb.
  - C: Adding 'will have' before the base form of the verb.
  - D: Adding 'did' before the base form of the verb.
-

Q7: Which of the following sentences is NOT in the past perfect tense?

- A: She had already completed her assignment before the deadline.
  - B: They had gone to the store to buy groceries.
  - C: He has finished his work for the day.
  - D: We had visited that museum during our vacation.
-

Q8: What is the definition of the past perfect tense?

- A: The verb tense is used to describe actions happening in the present.
  - B: The verb tense is used to express habitual actions in the past.
  - C: The verb tense indicates an action completed before another action in the past.
  - D: The verb tense is used to refer to future events.
-

Q9: Which of the following sentences uses the passive past perfect tense?

- A: The chef has cooked a delicious meal for the guests.
  - B: They had already repaired the car before it was driven.
  - C: She is writing a heartfelt letter to her friend.
  - D: The students studied hard for the exam.
-

Q10: What is the difference between the past perfect and present perfect tense?

- A: The past perfect tense refers to completed actions before another past action, while the present perfect tense refers to actions that started in the past and are connected to the present.
  - B: The past perfect tense describes ongoing actions in the past, while the present perfect tense describes actions completed in the past.
  - C: The past perfect tense is used to express future actions, while the present perfect tense is used to express past actions.
  - D: The past perfect tense is used for general statements and facts, while the present perfect tense is used for specific and momentary actions.
-

Answers

---

Q1: C - They had already finished their homework when the teacher arrived.

Q2: C - Indicating an action completed before another action in the Past.

Q3: C - They had already eaten dinner when I arrived.

Q4: A - had finished

Q5: A - had arrived

Q6: A - Adding 'had' before the base form of the verb.

Q7: C - He has finished his work for the day.

Q8: C - The verb tense indicates an action completed before another action in the past.

Q9: B - They had already repaired the car before it was driven.

Q10: A - The past perfect tense refers to completed actions before another past action, while the present perfect tense refers to actions that started in the past and are connected to the present.