

PREDICATE NOMINATIVE

Grammar, in English, serves as its backbone, providing structure and clarity to our thoughts and ideas. Your understanding of grammatical concepts such as predicate nominative holds great significance as an English learner. It allows you to express yourself with precision and clarity. And that is what EduLyte's English trainers will help you do with their predicate nominative resource. And what is even better is that you get exclusive access to a free worksheet!

Read more

Q1: Which of the following sentences contains a predicate nominative?

- A: The cat chased the mouse.
 - B: She became a doctor.
 - C: I am going to the park.
 - D: They painted the walls blue.
-

Q2: Which of the following sentences does NOT contain a predicate nominative?

- A: The dog is my best friend.
 - B: He felt sick after eating the cake.
 - C: They elected her as their leader.
 - D: The book on the shelf is about animals.
-

Q3: Which of the following is an example of a sentence with a predicate nominative?

- A: The car drives fast.
 - B: She painted a beautiful picture.
 - C: My favourite colour is blue.
 - D: They are going to the beach.
-

Q4: What is a predicate nominative?

- A: A type of verb used to describe actions.
 - B: A word that renames or identifies the subject of a sentence.
 - C: A grammatical term referring to the first word in a sentence.
 - D: A type of adverb used to modify verbs.
-

Q5: Which of the following sentences does NOT contain a predicate nominative?

- A: The flowers in the garden bloomed beautifully.
 - B: He is a talented musician.
 - C: They called her a hero.
 - D: The students are good friends.
-

Q6: Which of the following sentences contains a predicate nominative?

- A: I ran quickly to catch the bus.
 - B: The cat sat lazily on the windowsill.
 - C: The contest winner was Mary.
 - D: She sang beautifully at the concert.
-

Q7: Which of the following sentences does NOT contain a predicate nominative?

- A: I told them meeting at 3 p.m. was not possible.
 - B: He is a talented artist.
 - C: They called her Zora.
 - D: The students are good friends.
-

Q8: Choose the predicate nominative in the following sentence: 'Her dream is to become a successful entrepreneur.'

- A: Her
 - B: dream
 - C: is
 - D: successful entrepreneur
-

Q9: Choose the predicate nominative in the following sentence: 'The new employee is a skilled programmer.'

- A: new
 - B: employee
 - C: is
 - D: skilled programmer
-

Q10: Choose the predicate nominative in the following sentence: 'They elected her as the president.'

- A: They
 - B: elected
 - C: her
 - D: president
-

Answers

Q1: B - She became a doctor.

Q2: B - He felt sick after eating the cake.

Q3: C - My favourite colour is blue.

Q4: B - A word that renames or identifies the subject of a sentence.

Q5: A - The flowers in the garden bloomed beautifully.

Q6: C - The contest winner was Mary.

Q7: A - I told them meeting at 3 p.m. was not possible.

Q8: D - successful entrepreneur

Q9: D - skilled programmer

Q10: D - president