

PROPER NOUNS

Proper nouns have an essential role to play in English grammar. The proper noun is a specific name of a particular place or maybe a person or a thing. You should write proper nouns with a capital letter in English grammar, no matter where they are in the sentence.

Read more

Q1: What is an example of proper nouns?

- A: A. I
 - B: B. His
 - C: C. Rohit
 - D: D. Between
-

Q2: What is not a proper noun?

- A: A. David
 - B: B. Magazine
 - C: C. Google
 - D: D. BMW
-

Q3: Which of the following is a proper noun for a person?

- A: A. Telegraph
 - B: B. Goat
 - C: C. Pen
 - D: D. Starc
-

Q4: Which of the following is a proper noun?

- A: A. His
 - B: B. They
 - C: C. Elephant
 - D: D. Us
-

Q5: Which is the appropriate proper noun for a person?

- A: A. Ben
 - B: B. Delhi
 - C: C. bike
 - D: D. Strawberry
-

Q6: What is the rule for writing a proper noun?

- A: A. With comma
 - B: B. Under quotes
 - C: C. Capitalize
 - D: D. Before full stop
-

Q7: Identify the proper noun

- A: A. he
 - B: B. Vehicle
 - C: C. Money
 - D: D. Maths
-

Q8: Which of the following is not a category of proper nouns?

- A: A. Name
 - B: B. Fridge
 - C: C. Animals
 - D: D. Books
-

Q9: Which of the following is a proper noun?

- A: A. University
 - B: B. School
 - C: C. Interview
 - D: D. Zudio
-

Q10: Where can you put a proper noun in a sentence?

- A: A. Anywhere in the sentence
 - B: B. In the beginning
 - C: C. Before the comma
 - D: D. At the end
-

Answers

Q1: C - C. Rohit

Q2: B - B. Magazine

Q3: D - D. Starc

Q4: C - C. Elephant

Q5: A - A. Ben

Q6: C - C. Capitalize

Q7: C - C. Money

Q8: B - B. Fridge

Q9: D - D. Zudio

Q10: A - A. Anywhere in the sentence