

RECIPROCAL PRONOUN

The definition of reciprocal pronoun, as the word goes, are those pronouns used in the English language which have give-and-take and a sort of a joint relationship among themselves. They usually refer to two or more doers or subjects of the action, and each subject ends up being both the perpetrator and receiver of a particular action.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following is a reciprocal pronoun?

- A: each another
 - B: one other
 - C: each one
 - D: each other
-

Q2: Which of the following is a reciprocal pronoun for a plural subject?

- A: another one
 - B: another each
 - C: one other
 - D: each other
-

Q3: Which reciprocal pronoun is used for two people or things?

- A: one other
 - B: each one
 - C: each other
 - D: one other
-

Q4: Reciprocal pronouns are used to show actions or feelings that are mutually performed or felt by two or more individuals. Which of the following is a reciprocal pronoun?

- A: He
 - B: She
 - C: One another
 - D: Itself
-

Q5: Choose the reciprocal pronoun that correctly completes the sentence: 'Sarah and Mark hugged _____ tightly.'

- A: Him
 - B: Each other
 - C: She
 - D: Me
-

Q6: Reciprocal pronouns are often used to indicate actions between two or more people. Which of the following sentences uses a reciprocal pronoun correctly?

- A: I love ice cream.
 - B: They gave gifts to each other.
 - C: She read a book.
 - D: He enjoys playing tennis.
-

Q7: Fill in the blank with the appropriate reciprocal pronoun: 'My sister and I help _____ with our homework.'

- A: Each other
 - B: Yourself
 - C: Himself
 - D: Itself
-

Q8: Reciprocal pronouns can be used in various tenses. Which of the following is a sentence using a reciprocal pronoun in the past tense?

- A: They will meet next week.
 - B: She is cooking dinner now.
 - C: We saw each other yesterday.
 - D: He reads books daily.
-

Q9: Reciprocal pronouns can refer to actions between two or more people. Which sentence demonstrates the correct use of a reciprocal pronoun?

- A: He sings beautifully.
 - B: She danced alone.
 - C: They hugged each other warmly.
 - D: I painted the room blue.
-

Q10: Fill in the blank with the appropriate reciprocal pronoun: 'The two teams played against _____ in the championship.'

- A: Himself
 - B: Yourselves
 - C: Each other
 - D: Itself
-

Answers

Q1: D - each other

Q2: D - each other

Q3: C - each other

Q4: C - One another

Q5: B - Each other

Q6: B - They gave gifts to each other.

Q7: A - Each other

Q8: C - We saw each other yesterday.

Q9: C - They hugged each other warmly.

Q10: C - Each other