

SENTENCE

A sentence in English grammar means a group of words that makes a proper meaning. A capital letter should start a sentence and a full stop should end it. Each sentence consists of a finite verb in it. One of the primary importance of sentences is it helps in making efficient communications and make them meaningful. It is one of the primary aspects of the English language. Sentences play a critical role in conveying any idea to a person or defining any particular thing.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following is a declarative sentence?

- A: What is the name of the book?
 - B: I read the book yesterday.
 - C: Alas! It was a great day!
 - D: Read the book now.
-

Q2: Which sentence type is used to give commands or instructions?

- A: Interrogative
 - B: Imperative
 - C: Declarative
 - D: Exclamatory
-

Q3: Which is the type of sentence that ends with an exclamation mark?

- A: Exclamatory
 - B: Imperative
 - C: Declarative
 - D: Interrogative
-

Q4: Which sentence has one word in it?

- A: Interrogative
 - B: Imperative
 - C: Exclamatory
 - D: One word sentence
-

Q5: Which statement has a question mark?

- A: Interrogative
 - B: Exclamatory
 - C: Imperative
 - D: One word sentence
-

Q6: Which of these is an Interrogative sentence?

- A: He was waiting for the train.
 - B: He waited for the train.
 - C: Was he waiting for the train?
 - D: He got on the train.
-

Q7: Which of these is an exclamatory sentence?

- A: Did you win the match?
 - B: He won the match.
 - C: Finally! He won the match!
 - D: Who won the match?
-

Q8: Which of these is an element of the sentence?

- A: Verb
 - B: Noun
 - C: Adverb
 - D: All of these
-

Q9: Which of these is a definition of a simple sentence?

- A: Two clause
 - B: One clause
 - C: Two dependent clause
 - D: Two independent clause
-

Q10: Which of these is an example of a one-word sentence?

- A: Yes
 - B: We are going
 - C: Are you playing cricket?
 - D: Let's go to Australia next week.
-

Answers

Q1: B - I read the book yesterday.

Q2: B - Imperative

Q3: A - Exclamatory

Q4: D - One word sentence

Q5: A - Interrogative

Q6: C - Was he waiting for the train?

Q7: C - Finally! He won the match!

Q8: D - All of these

Q9: B - One clause

Q10: A - Yes