

TENSE

Do you get tense about tenses in English? Tenses hold the key to your becoming a pro at the English language. Their constant revision ensures you do not lose grip over the language. EduLyte offers you the most comprehensive tenses resource. Don't miss the opportunity to transform your language skills!

Read more

Q1: Choose the correct sentence in the past perfect tense:

- A: She is baking a cake.
 - B: They had finished their homework before the party started.
 - C: He will read the book tomorrow.
 - D: He is reading a novel.
-

Q2: What is the correct sentence in the future perfect tense?

- A: They are reading a book right now.
 - B: By tomorrow, she will have completed her assignment.
 - C: He had finished his work before lunch.
 - D: We go to the park everyday.
-

Q3: Which sentence is in the future continuous tense?

- A: They will arrive at the airport in an hour.
 - B: By the time I arrived, she had cooked dinner.
 - C: She will be studying for her exam tomorrow.
 - D: She has studied for her exam tomorrow.
-

Q4: Which sentence is in the simple past tense?

- A: She is reading a book right now.
 - B: They will finish their project next week.
 - C: He visited his grandparents last weekend.
 - D: I am visiting the lake today.
-

Q5: Which sentence is in the simple present tense?

- A: She has gone to the store yesterday.
 - B: They will be studying for their test tomorrow.
 - C: He reads books every evening.
 - D: We were watching a movie last night.
-

Q6: Which sentence is in the past progressive tense?

- A: She will finish her project by tomorrow.
 - B: They have already completed their assignment.
 - C: He was playing football with his friends yesterday.
 - D: I am going to the gym later.
-

Q7: What is the difference between the simple present and present continuous tense?

- A: The simple present is used for actions happening at the moment, while present continuous is used for habitual actions.
 - B: The simple present is used for future actions, while the present continuous is used for past actions.
 - C: The simple present is used for general truths and habitual actions, while present continuous is used for actions happening at the moment or around now.
 - D: The simple present is used for completed actions, while the present continuous is used for ongoing actions.
-

Q8: Which sentence is in the future progressive tense?

- A: She finishes her work before lunch.
 - B: They will visit the museum next week.
 - C: He will be studying for his exam tomorrow.
 - D: We were watching a movie last night.
-

Q9: Which sentence is in the present progressive tense?

- A: We will finish the move by 10:00.
 - B: They will visit the museum next week.
 - C: He will be studying for his exam tomorrow.
 - D: We are playing tennis.
-

Q10: Which sentence is in the present perfect tense?

- A: She reads a book every day.
 - B: They will finish their project by tomorrow.
 - C: He has already eaten lunch.
 - D: We were watching a movie last night.
-

Answers

Q1: B - They had finished their homework before the party started.

Q2: B - By tomorrow, she will have completed her assignment.

Q3: C - She will be studying for her exam tomorrow.

Q4: C - He visited his grandparents last weekend.

Q5: C - He reads books every evening.

Q6: C - He was playing football with his friends yesterday.

Q7: C - The simple present is used for general truths and habitual actions, while present continuous is used for actions happening at the moment or around now.

Q8: C - He will be studying for his exam tomorrow.

Q9: D - We are playing tennis.

Q10: C - He has already eaten lunch.