

THIRD PERSON

Among the three 'persons' used in English grammar to refer to nouns, pronouns and verbs in a sentence, the 'third person' is used to talk about someone or something that is not a part of the conversation and is being discussed by keeping it outside the conversation. When you want to tell someone about something that happened to you or about someone that did something to you, you use third-person pronouns.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following sentences is in the third person perspective?

- A: I am writing a letter.
 - B: You are not as innocent as you seem.
 - C: She will give you the letter.
 - D: We will leave tomorrow.
-

Q2: Which of the following sentences is written in the third person objective perspective?

- A: She was baking a cake when it happened.
 - B: He watched from a distance as the mother scolded his brother.
 - C: They are playing football.
 - D: It is raining outside.
-

Q3: What is the opposite of the third-person perspective in writing?

- A: Third person limited
 - B: Third person objective
 - C: First-person
 - D: Third person omniscient
-

Q4: Which of the following is a third-person pronoun?

- A: I
 - B: We
 - C: You
 - D: Them
-

Q5: Which of the third-person pronouns is used to refer to a group?

- A: They
 - B: It
 - C: She
 - D: He
-

Q6: Which is a third-person singular pronoun that is non-gender specific?

- A: He
 - B: She
 - C: It
 - D: They
-

Q7: Which perspective allows multiple viewpoints in a story?

- A: First-person
 - B: Third person omniscient
 - C: Second person
 - D: Third person limited
-

Q8: Which perspective tells the story from one character's point of view?

- A: First-person
 - B: Third person omniscient
 - C: Second person
 - D: Third person limited
-

Q9: Which is a characteristic of a third-person narrative?

- A: Uses the pronoun 'I' to refer to the protagonist
 - B: Gives the authors' personal opinions
 - C: Makes the story impartial
 - D: Tells the story from the reader's point of view.
-

Q10: In which narration does the narrator report events without knowing the thoughts of the characters?

- A: Third person objective
 - B: Third person limited
 - C: Third person omniscient
 - D: Third person subjective
-

Answers

Q1: C - She will give you the letter.

Q2: B - He watched from a distance as the mother scolded his brother.

Q3: C - First-person

Q4: D - Them

Q5: A - They

Q6: C - It

Q7: B - Third person omniscient

Q8: D - Third person limited

Q9: C - Makes the story impartial

Q10: A - Third person objective