

TRANSITIVE VERB

Transitive and intransitive verbs are two important verb forms in the English language that convey an action or a physical change in the environment. While a transitive verb requires a direct object (which may be a noun or a pronoun) to complete its meaning, an intransitive verb does not require any direct object to complete its meaning and provides sufficient information on its own.

Read more

Q1: Which sentence contains a transitive verb?

- A: My grandmother sleeps peacefully.
 - B: My grandmother knitted a sweater.
 - C: My grandmother is walking.
 - D: My grandmother will pray.
-

Q2: Which of the following verbs can be both transitive and intransitive, depending on the context?

- A: Eat
 - B: Write
 - C: Give
 - D: Talk
-

Q3: Which sentence contains a transitive verb with two direct objects?

- A: She bought him a beautiful wallet.
 - B: She bought him a very beautiful wallet.
 - C: She bought him a wallet and a pen.
 - D: She bought him a wallet out of love.
-

Q4: What is not true about a transitive verb?

- A: It requires an object to complete its meaning.
 - B: It transfers the effect of the verb to the object.
 - C: It is complete on its own.
 - D: It provides clear and precise information.
-

Q5: Choose the sentence with a transitive verb

- A: She cried.
 - B: The cat jumped.
 - C: The horse galloped.
 - D: He made a painting.
-

Q6: Choose the sentence with a transitive verb

- A: The car drove.
 - B: The children played.
 - C: She wrote a letter.
 - D: She smiled.
-

Q7: Choose the sentence with an intransitive verb

- A: They made a beautiful house.
 - B: The audience laughed.
 - C: She is reading a book.
 - D: He hit the door in anger.
-

Q8: Choose the sentence with an intransitive verb

- A: They left.
 - B: I am making pizza.
 - C: He is painting a picture.
 - D: The teacher is delivering a lesson.
-

Q9: Choose the option with both a transitive verb and an intransitive verb

- A: Borrow
 - B: Bring
 - C: Understand
 - D: Discuss
-

Q10: Choose the sentence with a direct and an indirect object

- A: She gave the pen to me.
 - B: She gave the pen.
 - C: She gave.
 - D: She gave me.
-

Answers

Q1: B - My grandmother knitted a sweater.

Q2: D - Talk

Q3: C - She bought him a wallet and a pen.

Q4: C - It is complete on its own.

Q5: D - He made a painting.

Q6: C - She wrote a letter.

Q7: B - The audience laughed.

Q8: A - They left.

Q9: C - Understand

Q10: A - She gave the pen to me.