

VERBAL

Verbal meaning would be a type of word that you use as an adverb, an adjective, or a noun in your sentence. What is a Verbal? If you define verbal, it is a type of verb that directly looks like a verb but does not function as a verb in the sentence. The verbal sentence consists of a verb, a subject, and an object that makes the entire sentence.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following is a Gerund?

- A: Writing
 - B: Wrote
 - C: Written
 - D: To write
-

Q2: Which of the following is a present participle?

- A: Practice
 - B: Practised
 - C: Will practice
 - D: Practising
-

Q3: Which of the following is an infinitive?

- A: Went
 - B: To go
 - C: Visit
 - D: Will go
-

Q4: Identify the verbal in the sentence: ' Stoinis is eating a biscuit.'

- A: Biscuit
 - B: A
 - C: Eating
 - D: Is
-

Q5: What do you use in the case of an infinitive?

- A: To
 - B: Has
 - C: Had
 - D: 'Ing'
-

Q6: Identify the past participle:

- A: Play
 - B: Played
 - C: Will play
 - D: Playing
-

Q7: Identify the type of verbal in the sentence: 'She is going for an event.'

- A: No verbal
 - B: Infinitive
 - C: Participle
 - D: Gerund
-

Q8: Identify the type of verbal in the sentence: ' I am to visit our neighbours.'

- A: Participle
 - B: Infinitive
 - C: No verbal
 - D: Gerund
-

Q9: Identify the type of verbal in the sentence: ' Who is he?'

- A: Participle
 - B: Infinitive
 - C: No verbal
 - D: Gerund
-

Q10: Identify the verbal in the sentence: ' I have submitted the assignment.'

- A: Assignment
 - B: Have
 - C: I
 - D: Submitted
-

Answers

Q1: A - Writing

Q2: D - Practising

Q3: B - To go

Q4: C - Eating

Q5: A - To

Q6: B - Played

Q7: D - Gerund

Q8: B - Infinitive

Q9: C - No verbal

Q10: D - Submitted