

VERBS FOR KIDS

Hello kids! Today we're going to learn about something super fun and interesting- Verbs! So what are verbs, you ask? Well, verbs are like the action heroes of sentences. They tell us what people and things do. For example, when you go out to play in the park, you run, jump, shout and laugh on the field with your friends. All of these words, such as 'run', 'jump', 'shout', and 'laugh' are what we call verbs. They tell us about the fun things you're doing. Verbs are like magicians and superheroes of sentences that tell us what is happening and make stories more interesting!
