

PARTICIPLE

Participle definition can be termed as they are a strong grammatical tool that are sometimes overlooked. They have the power to give phrases more nuance, detail, and complexity. Verb forms known as participles serve as adjectives or constituents of verb phrases. They can be used to alter nouns or pronouns and can be derived from both regular and irregular verbs.

Read more

Q1: Which of the following is a present participle?

- A: running
 - B: talked
 - C: broken
 - D: seen
-

Q2: Which sentence contains a participle phrase?

- A: The dog barking loudly chased its tail.
 - B: She painted the room blue.
 - C: He jumped over the fence.
 - D: They walked to the park.
-

Q3: Which of the following sentences contains a perfect participle?

- A: Having finished her homework, she went to bed.
 - B: The car crashed into a tree.
 - C: He had played football for years.
 - D: She is cooking dinner.
-

Q4: What is the primary purpose of using participles in writing and communication?

- A: To shorten sentences
 - B: To avoid using adjectives
 - C: To simplify sentences
 - D: To add depth, description, and complexity to sentences
-

Q5: What are the three main types of participles in English Grammar?

- A: Subject, verb, and object
 - B: Present participles, past participles, and perfect participles
 - C: Pronouns, adjectives, and prepositions
 - D: Regular verbs, irregular verbs, and adverbs
-

Q6: Which of the following is a common usage of past participle?

- A: Expressing future actions
 - B: Expressing hypothetical actions
 - C: Expressing completed actions
 - D: Expressing ongoing actions
-

Q7: What are participial phrases?

- A: Groups of words that include a participle and its accompanying modifiers, objects, or complements and function as adjectives
 - B: Groups of words that include an adverb and its object and function as nouns
 - C: Groups of words that include a noun and its modifiers and function as verbs
 - D: Groups of words that include a verb and its object and function as adverbs
-

Q8: What is the function of participial phrases in sentences?

- A: To modify nouns or pronouns and provide more information about them
 - B: To show the location of a place noun
 - C: To describe an action verb
 - D: To indicate the gender of a noun/pronoun
-

Q9: What is the past participle used for?

- A: Describing completed actions in the past
 - B: Continuing actions in the present
 - C: Perfect verb tenses, passive voice, and adjectives
 - D: Comparing two different actions
-

Q10: What is a dangling participle?

- A: A type of verb tense
 - B: A common spelling mistake
 - C: An adjective misused in a sentence
 - D: When the subject of the participle differs from the subject of the main clause, resulting in a sentence that lacks clarity or coherence
-

Answers

Q1: A - running

Q2: A - The dog barking loudly chased its tail.

Q3: A - Having finished her homework, she went to bed.

Q4: D - To add depth, description, and complexity to sentences

Q5: B - Present participles, past participles, and perfect participles

Q6: C - Expressing completed actions

Q7: A - Groups of words that include a participle and its accompanying modifiers, objects, or complements and function as adjectives

Q8: A - To modify nouns or pronouns and provide more information about them

Q9: C - Perfect verb tenses, passive voice, and adjectives

Q10: D - When the subject of the participle differs from the subject of the main clause, resulting in a sentence that lacks clarity or coherence